ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER,
2017: "CHRISTIANS IN ASIA:

That Christians in Asia, bearing witness to the Gospel in word and deed, may promote dialogue, peace, and mutual understanding, especially with those of other religions.” (PHOTO: Pope Francis bestows a kiss on the forehead of Clement Pappin, son of parishioners Gladden and Jeannette Pappin, St. Peter's Square, 2015.)

SPECIAL INTENTION: For all the expectant mothers of our parish family.
“St. Gerard Majella, pray for us”

Prayer for Motherhood:

O good St. Gerard, powerful intercessor before God and Wonderworker of our day, I call upon thee and seek thy aid. Thou who on this earth didst always fulfil God's designs, help me to do the Holy Will of God.

Beseech the Master of Life, from Whom all paternity proceedeth, to render me fruitful in offspring, that I may raise up children to God in this life and heirs to the Kingdom of His Glory in the world to come. Amen.

FRONT COVER

A view of the nave of the “new” parish church of St. Mary's, Newton & Needham, at the time of its Dedication: Thanksgiving Day (November 24th), 1910. The new parish church was given a new name at that time:
MARY IMMACULATE OF LOURDES.

Our 9 AM Mass on Thanksgiving Day this week will be the Mass on the Anniversary of the Dedication of a Church.

Pastor's Note

OUR COMING PLEDGE-PLAN FOR CHURCH SUPPORT FOR THE CHURCH'S YEAR OF GRACE, 2018

As we know the Church's Liturgical Cycle begins anew each year with the First Sunday of Advent and follows its course to the Last Sunday after Pentecost (1962 Missal) and the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe (1970 Missal). I would like to work within that structure to introduce a Pledge-Plan for the support of our parish church. Specifically I would like to ask each parish household to consider what you might be able to do for the parish financially between the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady on December 8th, 2017 (the titular Mystery of Faith for our parish) and the Anniversary of the Dedication of the parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Thanksgiving Day (November 22nd), 2018.

This is the first time we are trying this approach so I ask your patience if it is slow-moving in its implementation. I will make my approach to registered parish households through a mailing which will contain a cover letter, a pledge card, and a blank parish registration form in order to provide the opportunity to update any information. The pledge card will ask you to commit to a stewardship level of giving in proportion to your means over the course of the Year of Grace 2018. Obviously, it is a free-will gift, given first and foremost to God in gratitude for all of His gifts to us.

This Pledge-Plan will also help fulfill the purpose of up-dating our parish rolls and of perhaps becoming aware of any circumstances which call for a greater attention from the Parish Priest and the Pastoral Staff to your household. We need to be precise in identifying what it means to be a "parishioner" at a parish. The term is being used ever more loosely in the present day.

I am looking at "the grid" in this way:

Full Parish Member: Registered in the parish, regularly attends Sunday Mass at the parish church, and makes more than a token contribution to the parish's financial support.

Associate Member: On the parish rolls, makes more than a token financial contribution, but irregularly attends Sunday Mass here.

Special Category: Registered parishioners whose circumstances are such that they don't fit one of the above categories, but they certainly are joined to the parish in will.

Contributing Non-Member: People not registered as parishioners, but who contribute to the support of the parish nonetheless.

People who may be registered but who have withdrawn from parish life and church support will be moved to the column of Inactive. (It is helpful if the parish office is informed when someone has transferred their membership to another parish.) People who are un-registered and are non-practicing Catholics, though they may live in the parish territory, they are lapsed from the Faith and are not entitled to the same considerations afforded to actual members of the parish. That can change by their own return to the practice of the Faith and their own sharing in the burden of supporting the mission of this parish by their donor dollars.

(Fr. Higgins)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: NOVEMBER 19th, 2017 STEWARDSHIP (3)

In view of the launch of our upcoming pledge-giving program starting this Advent, I am continuing my four-part series on the Biblical basis for the Fifth Precept of the Church, "You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church." Today, we look at the encounter of the Rich Young Man with Jesus in Matthew 19:16-26. Below is an excerpt of the passage in RSV translation:

16 And behold, one came up to Him, saying, "Teacher, what good deed must I do, to have eternal life?" 17 And He said to him, "Why do you ask Me about what is good? One there is who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments." 20 The young man said to Him, "All these I have observed; what do I still lack?" 21 Jesus said to Him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." 22 When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. 23 And Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly, I say to you, it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." 25 When the disciples heard this they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?" 26 But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

The central point of this episode is that Jesus calls the rich young man to embrace Him as the highest Good (cf. John Paul II, Veritatis Splendor, chapter 1). Hence, Jesus' initial reply in v. 17, "One there is who is good," i.e., God Himself (cf. Lk 18:19). Even though this upright young man observed the majority of the Ten Commandments, (Jesus lists some in vv. 18-19), his attachment to his wealth precluded a perfect observance of the First and Tenth Commandments (the prohibitions against idolatry and material covetousness).

We should not misunderstand Jesus' focus on possessions as a universal call for the abolition of private property and wealth. Rather, we should receive it as a clear statement on the hierarchy of goods. Jesus teaches quite plainly that spiritual goods trump temporal goods in value. Money should not be cherished more than God.

Jesus' words find their fullest meaning in the Religious/Monastic Life, as well as certain forms of apostolic life, where a total or near-total personal relinquishment of material wealth is constitutive to the rule of life, in imitation of Jesus' own life (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 915-916, 932). This counsel/call was given to the Apostles and other associates in their band. These accepted Jesus' call for the sake of a higher end, and He promised them abundant heavenly rewards surpassing whatever they sacrificed out of love for Him (vv. 27-30).

How do Jesus' words apply to us? Exactly in the sense I have given above, namely, that we are called to value spiritual goods above earthly ones. This is where the truth of the Church's Fifth Precept dovetails with the truth of Jesus' counsel. We should provide for the needs of our own parish Church, because she supplies us with the majority of our spiritual goods in this life. Offering a tithe of 5-10% of one's income manifests concretely that we believe that God is more important than our personal wealth. Stewardship-level giving is therefore an act of thanksgiving to God for the spiritual goods of our parish Church, and secondly, a means of ensuring that the temporal necessities of her mission are duly met. Trust in God's goodness and love to give you the grace to make a worthy offering. In this passage, Jesus tells the Apostles what Gabriel tells Our Lady, "with God all things are possible" (v. 26; cf. Lk. 1:37).

MESSAGE FROM
FR. SALAKO, SMA:

Received from Fr. Desiré Salako last Sunday: "Good morning, Father. I'm fine, by the grace of God. Since September I was travelling to Niger, Nigeria, Liberia, etc. I'm just back. First, thanks for your care and attention to the Mission here in Africa. I strongly believe—we belong to the same Church, the same world. November 9th, we celebrated the opening Mass of the year in the Seminary. Thanks for your help. Our Bursar called me and informed me about the amount: $27,000. With that money we continue the mission of God here—in our various mission areas. All the best to the Parishioners. I pray for them. God bless!"

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY (RESUMED)

INTROIT: Jeremias 29. 11, 12, 14; Psalm 84. 2 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84. 2. Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. ℟̄. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — The Lord ...

COLLECT Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that thinking everything over in our minds, we may accomplish, both in words and works, that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the first Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians, 1. 2-10. Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all, making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith and labor and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father: knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election: for our Gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much fullness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that you were made a pattern to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you was spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves relate of us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven (whom He raised up from the dead), Jesus, who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GRADUAL: Psalm 43. 8-9 Thou hast saved us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. In God we will glory all the day long: and in Thy Name we will give praise for ever. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 129. 1-2 Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, 13. 31-35. At that time Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds: but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable He spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables He did not speak to them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying: I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 129. 1-2 Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: May this offering, O God, we beseech Thee, cleanse and renew us, guide and protect us. Through our Lord ...

COMMUNION: Mark 11. 24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have been fed, O Lord, with heavenly delights, and beseech Thee, that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through our Lord ...

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
