ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)
Raised to the Altars October 14th, 2018

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION FOR UKRAINE

Cardinal Seán has authorized a special emergency Second Collection this Sunday for the humanitarian relief efforts on behalf of the people of Ukraine, so beleaguered by the war of Russian aggression. The proceeds from this collection will be directed to Catholic Relief Services.

NINTH ANNIVERSARY OF POPE FRANCIS'S INSTALLATION 2013/2022

Within the prayers of our Sunday Mass today we remember the special intention of our Holy Father Pope Francis on the Ninth Anniversary of his Installation. Pope Francis was elected in the Conclave on March 13th, 2013 and installed on March 19th. Since March 19th is always the Feast of St. Joseph, the observance of the Pope's Anniversary is perpetually transferred to March 20th.

"THE LOURDES OF PILGRIMAGE and the LIFE OF THE CHURCH"

PARISH LENTEN MISSION for A.D. 2022 CONFERENCE II: THE TWO KINGDOMS

(Given at the VIA CRUCIS, March 11th, 2022)

The first National Pilgrimage to Lourdes was the "Pilgrimage of the Banners", October, 1872. Its success inspired Père Emmanuel d'Alzon, the charismatic founder of a new religious order in France, the Assumptionists, to repeat the event and re-shape it according to his mind.

The Assumptionists, based in Paris, called for a second National Pilgrimage under their auspices, to be held between July 22nd-August 22nd (the Octave Day of Our Lady's Assumption), 1873. In this Pilgrimage there were to be two national rallying points for loyal Catholics to gather in great numbers: La Salette in the southeast and Lourdes in the southwest. With better train access and a less anti-clerical spirit among the local population, Lourdes proved to be a more successful gathering spot for French Catholics.

Père d'Alzon and his religious order family had what we might call "une certaine idée de la France." The France they wanted to see brought back to life was the France of Clovis, King of the Franks, whose Baptism together with his chieftains on Christmas Day, A.D. 496, by the Bishop St. Remy was behind the designation of France as the "eldest daughter of the Church" (la fille ainée de l'Eglise). They longed for the France of Charlemagne (crowned Holy Roman Emperor in A.D. 800), the France of King St. Louis IX, the Crusader King (+1270). It was a mythic, romantic view of French identity, built upon the idealized images of Throne (royal kingly power) and Altar (the sacred power of the Catholic Church).

To this end they wanted to see three concrete things established, and they conceived of the National Pilgrimage of 1873 as a means of gathering Catholics together in great numbers in order to “storm Heaven” for their actualization.

The first was the restoration of the Bourbon dynasty’s rightful heir to the Throne of France. (In 1873, this was the Comte de Chambord, 53 years-old, who sought to be crowned as Henry V.) Only such could be the legitimate King: all other would be claimants were usurpers. Hence, the political term legitimistes (“legitimists”) was applied to those French who were Bourbon monarchists.

The second was the restoration of the temporal power of the Papacy. The Pope’s temporal sovereignty had been erased altogether when the Kingdom of Sardinia sent its troops into Rome in September, 1870.

The third was the harmonious re-establishment of the social order based upon the alliance of Throne and Altar. Royal power would protect the rights of the Church while Sacred Power would re-enforce the divine basis for Catholic Kingship.

The sufferings of the people caused by the disorders and miseries of Revolution and Napoleonic wars would thereby be redeemed, as France was granted a new dispensation of peace under a restored Christian commonwealth.

As we know, none of these things—so fervently prayed for by so many—ever came to pass. If anything, things went the other way! How to interpret?

In the midst of His Passion, Christ is asked by Pontius Pilate if He is a King. Christ answers Him: “My Kingdom is not of this world.” Nonetheless, we His followers have great difficulty in accepting the full implications of this. Even at the moment of Christ’s Ascension, after all they had just lived through, there are some who ask Him: “Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore again the Kingdom to Israel?” (Acts 1:6) They have been promised the Kingdom of Heaven, but they’re still thinking in terms of a restored political Kingdom of Israel in this world.

They...we!...can’t help ourselves. We say that we believe in the Kingdom of Heaven not-of-this-world, but at the same time, after all, we do expect some level of “wins” in the earthly sphere. And when it doesn’t happen, as we’re sure God must want this too, then we become downcast and lose our fervor. “Why pray? God doesn’t hear me anyways?”

We need to remember then that God has not promised us any level of the Kingdom in terms of this world. Christ’s words to Pilate are absolutely true: “My Kingdom is not of this world.” In terms of the this-world special intentions for which the Assumptionists first organized a National Pilgrimage to Lourdes in 1873, it was a total failure. None of it happened. But who would dare to say that God has not given unction to the Pilgrimage to Lourdes when He has shown so many other fruits, and so many other things of great moral and spiritual value which are still being realized in our day?

Father Higgins

LATIN MASS PROPERS: THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

INTROIT: Psalm 24: 15-16 My eyes are ever towards the Lord: for He shall pluck my feet out of the snare: look Thou upon me, and have mercy on me; for I am alone and poor. Ps. To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed. V. Glory be.

COLLECT: We beseech Thee, almighty God, regard the desires of Thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy majesty to be our defence. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Ephesians 5:1-9 Brethren: Be ye followers of God, as most dear children: and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us and hath delivered Himself for us, an oblation and a sacrifice to God for an odour of sweetness. But fornication, and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not so much as be named among you, as becometh saints: or obscenity, or foolish talking, or scurrility, which is to no purpose: but rather giving of thanks. For know you this, and understand, that no fornicator, or unclean or covetous person, which is a serving of idols, hath inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the anger of God upon the children of unbelief. Be ye not therefore partakers with them. For you were heretofore darkness: but now light in the Lord. Walk then as children of the light: for the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and justice, and truth.

GRADUAL: Psalm 9: 20, 4 Arise, O Lord, let no man be strengthened; let the nations be judged in Thy sight. V. When my enemy shall be turned back, they shall be weakened and perish before Thy face. TRACT: Psalm 122: 1-3 To Thee have I lifted up my eyes, who dwellest in heaven. V. Behold as the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters. V. And as the eyes of the handmaid are on the hands of her mistress: so are our eyes unto the Lord our God, until He have mercy on us. V. Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us.

GOSPEL: Luke 11:14-28 At that time Jesus was casting out a devil, and the same was dumb. And when He had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke, and the multitudes were in admiration at it. But some of them said: He casteth out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils. And others, tempting, asked of Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation, and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because you say that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils: doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his court, those things are in peace which he possesseth. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcome him, he will take away all his armour wherein he trusted, and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with Me is against Me: and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he saith: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him: Blessed is the womb that bore Thee, and the paps that gave Thee suck. But He said: Yea, rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God, and keep it.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 18: 9, 10, 11, 12 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts, and His judgments are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: for Thy servant keepeth them.

SECRET: May this offering, we beseech Thee, O Lord, cleanse away our sins, sanctifying Thy servants in both soul and body for the celebration of this sacrifice. Through our Lord.

PREFACE FOR LENT

COMMUNION: Psalm 5: 2-4 Understand my cry: hearken to the voice of my prayer, O my King and my God: for to Thee will I pray, O Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION We humbly beseech Thee, almighty God, that we whom Thou hast strengthened with Thy sacraments, may henceforth serve and please Thee in worthiness of life. Through our Lord.
