ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

THE LIFE OF SAINT VERONICA GIULIANI (1660-1727 A.D.)

The front cover of our Sunday Bulletin today is of St. Veronica Giuliani. Today, July 9th, is her feast-day. The red roses adorning our altars are given by a parishioner out of special devotion to her. Here are some of the details of her life, as we find them in Fr. Thurston's edition of Butler's Lives of the Saints.

St. Veronica Giuliani's baptismal name was "Ursula". She was born at Mercatello in Urbino.

She is said to have begun to show signs of unusual piety at a very early age; at six and seven she was concerned to give away her own food and clothing to the needy, and at eleven devotion to Our Lord's Passion had begun to color her own life...

In consequence of a vision of Our Lady, Ursula made a vow to become a nun, but met with strong opposition from her father, Francis Giuliani: he not only wanted her to marry, but insisted on presenting eligible suitors. This worried her into an illness; Francis gave way, and in 1677 she was clothed a Capuchiness in the convent of Città di Castello, in Umbria, taking the name [in religion] of Veronica.

"GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS."—ST. THERESE OF

After her Profession her absorption in the Passion deepened, she had a vision of Our Lord bearing the Cross, and she began to have acute pain over her heart. In 1693, she experienced another vision in which the chalice of Christ's sufferings was offered to her; after a great struggle she accepted it, and henceforth reproduced in her own body and soul something of the sufferings of the Divine Master.

In the following year the imprint of the Crown of Thorns appeared on her head, and on Good Friday, 1697, the impress of the Five Sacred Wounds. These physical manifestations were subjected to medical treatment, but without any effect on them.

The Bishop was informed of this and he referred the matter to the Holy Office of the Inquisition for guidance. Sister Veronica ended up being put under the strictest surveillance in order to eliminate any chance for fraud.

She was forbidden to receive Holy Communion, to mix with the other nuns, or to have any sort of communication with the outside world; and she was to be day and night under the eye of a lay sister. The bishop, moreover, ordered that the wounds were to be dressed and bandaged, and her hands put into gloves with the fastenings sealed with his signet. Veronica suffered these prudent precautions with exemplary patience. They made no difference at all to the phenomena, and the bishop having communicated this and the nun's obedient and humble demeanor to the Holy Office, it was ordered that she should be allowed to return to the normal life of her community.

St. Veronica was of the type of St. Teresa of Avila and all the greatest contemplatives, adding to her devotion and supernatural gifts common sense and ability in affairs. She was novice mistress of her convent for thirty-four years, which itself shows how well she fulfilled the office, and eleven years before her death was elected abbess.

At the end of her life this “spouse of the Lord” who for nearly fifty years had suffered with patience, resignation and joy, was afflicted with apoplexy, and she died of this disorder on July 9, 1727. She left an account of her life and spiritual experiences, written by order of her confessor, and this was much used in the process of beatification; she was canonized in 1839. Long before her death she had told her confessor that the instruments of Our Lord’s Passion were imprinted on her heart, giving him more than once, for they, as she averred, shifted their position, a rough plan of a heart on which they were sketched. A post-mortem examination in the presence of the bishop, the mayor, the surgeons, and other witnesses, revealed in the right ventricle a number of minute objects corresponding to those she had drawn.

“IF YOU ARE WILLING TO SERENELY BEAR THE TRIAL OF BEING DISPLEASING TO YOURSELF, THEN YOU WILL BE FOR JESUS A PLEASANT PLACE OF SHELTER.”—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

The Martyrs of Orange
July 9th, 1794

Today is the feast-day of 32 French nuns who were guillotined in the city of Orange over the month of July during the Reign of Terror phase of the French Revolution. Their crime? They refused to take the republican oath. For this they were condemned to death for trying "to destroy the Republic by fanaticism and superstition." Sixteen of them were Ursuline nuns, thirteen Perpetual Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament (Sacramentines), two Bernardines, and one Benedictine. Each day the dwindling band of the condemned nuns in prison would say the Prayers of the Dying for that day's victims and then sing the Te Deum.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 27: 8-9 The Lord is the strength of His people, and the protector of the salvation of His anointed: save, O Lord, Thy people, and bless Thy inheritance, and rule them for ever. Psalm 27: 8-9 Unto Thee will I cry, O Lord: O my God, be not Thou silent to me, lest if Thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God of all power and might, who art the giver of all good things; implant in our hearts the love of Thy name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness and by Thy mercy keep us in the same. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Romans 6: 3-11 Brethren, all we who are baptized in Christ Jesus are baptized in His death. For we are buried together with Him by baptism unto death; that as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, and that we may serve sin no longer. For he that is dead is justified from sin. Now if ye be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also together with Christ. Knowing that Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more, death shall no more have dominion over Him. For in that He died to sin He died once; but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God. So do you also reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin.

GRADUAL: Psalm 89: 13, 1 Return, O Lord, a little; and be entreated in favour of Thy servants. V. Lord, Thou hast been our refuge from generation to generation. ALLELUIA: Psalm 30: 2-3 Alleluia, alleluia. V. In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded: deliver me in Thy justice, and release me; bow down Thy ear to me, make haste to deliver me. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 8: 1-9 At that time, when there was a great multitude with Jesus, and had nothing to eat, calling His disciples together, He saith to them: I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat; and if I shall send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way: for some of them came from afar off. And His disciples answered Him: From whence can any one fill them here with bread in the wilderness? And He asked them: How many loaves have ye? Who said: Seven. And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave to His disciples to set before the people. And they had a few little fishes, and He blessed them, and commanded them to be set before them. And they did eat, and were filled; and they took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets: and they that had eaten were about four thousand: and He sent them away.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 16: 5, 6-7 Perfect Thou my goings in Thy paths, that my footsteps be not moved: incline Thy ear, and hear my words: show forth Thy wonderful mercies, Thou who savest them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET Be appeased, O Lord, by our supplications, and graciously accept these offerings of Thy people: neither suffering the hope of anyone to be in vain, nor his prayer to remain unheard, that we may obtain that for which we faithfully pray. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Psalm 26: 6 I will go round, and offer up in His tabernacle a sacrifice of jubilation; I will sing, and recite a psalm to the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION Grant, O Lord, that we who have been filled with Thy gifts may be cleansed by their virtue and strengthened by their help. Through our Lord.
